This is the first book for teaching people the letters and other things for writing the Baka language. It is for teaching the sounds and shapes of the letters. It also teaches people that a person reads something in order to get meaning from it.

Technical advice was provided by the staff of the SIL. Illustrations were drawn by Oliver Daniel Joseph, with the exception of the elephant on page 10 and the rhinoceros on page 15, which were drawn by Neil Pinchbeck, and the goat on page 14 by Paul Kitum Kaino.
